Camp Counsellor

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.
- We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
- We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for Senior Counsellors to serve from June 23 to September 2, 2023. Full-summer Senior Counsellors receive a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $3350 and are eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $7400.
- Counsellors experience solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of being a direct part of changed lives.
- Room and board on Camp property is provided.

Requirements:
- A servant's heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ
- A sincere love for children and youth
- A desire and ability to share and model the love of Christ

Responsibilities:
- Counselling a cabin of eight to nine campers per week for seven to eight weeks
- Mentoring a Junior Counsellor
- Serving for one or two weeks on the All-Star United team, Activity Support, or Operations Support Crew

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it’s the perfect place to take in the glory of God’s creation whether you’re a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:
Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com
Kitchen Crew Trainer

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.
• We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
• We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for a Kitchen Crew Trainer to serve from April 26 to September 2, 2023. Please inquire even if you are unable to start on April 26. A full-summer Kitchen Crew Trainer receives a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $5300 and is eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $10 500.
• Experience solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of serving in a vital capacity.
• Kitchen Crew Trainers receive daily time to refresh and often have opportunities to be involved with the camp program

Requirements:
• A servant’s heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ
• A sincere love for children and youth
• A desire and ability to lead fellow kitchen crew members

Responsibilities:
• Assisting the Head Chefs and Food Services Manager in training new kitchen crew members
• Performing the tasks of a Kitchen Assistant when training is not required

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it’s the perfect place to take in the glory of God’s creation whether you’re a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:
Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com
Dish Team Leader

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.
- We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
- We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for a Dish Team Leader to serve from April 26 to September 2, 2023. Please inquire even if you are unable to start on April 26. He or she will receive a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $5300 and will be eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $10 500.
- The Dish Team Leader experiences solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of being a direct part of changed lives.
- Room and board on Camp property is provided.

Requirements:
- A servant's heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ.
- A desire to strive for excellence.
- The ability to work with and lead a team.

Responsibilities:
- Leading, managing, training, and providing spiritual discipleship to all dishwashing and dining room personnel for the operation of the dining room
- Cleaning, setting, and food serving
- Welcoming and leading leadership program participants while they serve in the dish room

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it's the perfect place to take in the glory of God’s creation whether you're a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:
Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com
Kitchen Assistant

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.
- We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
- We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for a Kitchen Assistant to serve from April 26 to September 2, 2023. Please inquire even if you are unable to start on April 26. A full-summer Kitchen Assistant receives a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $5300 and is eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $10,500.
- Experience solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of serving in a vital capacity.
- Kitchen Assistants receive daily time to refresh and often have opportunities to be involved with the camp program.

Requirements:
- A servant’s heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ.
- A sincere love for children and youth.
- The ability to work with and lead a team.

Responsibilities:
- Assisting the Head Chefs and Food Services Manager in all aspects of food preparation and service.
- This includes preparing cold parts of meals, maintaining kitchen cleanliness, and leading meal serving stations.

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it's the perfect place to take in the glory of God's creation whether you're a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:
Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com
Lifeguard/ Activity Support

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.

- We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
- We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for a Lifeguard/ Activity Support to serve from May 2 to September 2, 2023. Please inquire even if you are unable to start on May 2. A full-summer Lifeguard/ Activity Support receives a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $3800 and is eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $8450.

- Experience solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of serving in a vital capacity.
- Lifeguards/ Activity Support often have opportunities to be involved with the camp program.

Requirements:

- A servant’s heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ.
- A sincere love for children and youth.
- The ability to work with and lead a team.

Responsibilities:

- Assisting the Waterfront Leader in all aspects of safety for all waterfront activities for half the day.
- In the other part of the day, provide support in other areas of camp such as maintenance, kitchen, dish, or camp games.
- Requires NLS and experience in lifeguarding.

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it’s the perfect place to take in the glory of God’s creation whether you’re a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:

Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com
Assistant Challenge Course Leader

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.
- We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
- We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for an Assistant Challenge Course Leader to serve from April 26 to September 2, 2023. Please inquire even if you are unable to start on April 26. A full-summer Assistant Challenge Course Leader receives a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $4650 and is eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $9750.
- Experience solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of serving in a vital capacity.
- Assistant Challenge Course Leaders often have opportunities to be involved with the camp program.

Requirements:
- A servant’s heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ.
- A sincere love for children and youth.
- The ability to work with and lead a team.

Responsibilities:
- Assisting the Challenge Course Leader in leading our challenge course program.
- Includes overseeing guest activities, staff, safety, equipment, and general maintenance.

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it’s the perfect place to take in the glory of God’s creation whether you’re a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:
Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com
Events Assistant

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.
• We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
• We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for an Events Assistant to serve from April 26 to September 2, 2023. Please inquire even if you are unable to start on April 26. A full-summer Events Assistant receives a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $4950 and is eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $10,000.
• Experience solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of serving in a vital capacity.
• Events Assistants often have opportunities to be involved with the camp program.

Requirements:
• A servant’s heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ.
• A sincere love for children and youth.
• The ability to work with and lead a team.

Responsibilities:
• Assisting the Events Leader in organizing and leading activities and events as part of the All-Star United team.
• Includes overseeing All-Star Games, staff, setting up and preparing events and activities, providing general support as needed.

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it’s the perfect place to take in the glory of God’s creation whether you’re a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:
Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com
Admin Assistant

Just one week of showing kids the love of Jesus can have an eternal impact, and it happens through people like you! Camp Qwanoes hopes to welcome over 4,000 children and youth from all backgrounds this summer, and our goal is to help them discover life with Jesus Christ.

The Camp: Camp Qwanoes is a high-adventure, residential Christian camp located on beautiful Vancouver Island.
- We strive to love kids to life, helping them discover, live, and share life like no other in Christ.
- We believe in providing biblical discipleship through relationship-focused, fun-oriented, and Christ-centred programs.

The Position: We’re looking for an Admin Assistant to serve from April 26 to September 2, 2023. Please inquire even if you are unable to start on April 26. A full-summer Admin Assistant receives a financial contribution from Camp Qwanoes of $4650 and is eligible to raise additional support, with the help of Qwanoes, up to $9750.
- Experience solid training and support, wonderful fellowship, and the blessing of serving in a vital capacity.
- Admin Assistants often have opportunities to be involved with the camp program.

Requirements:
- A servant’s heart that is willing to work hard and ready to be a consistent witness for Christ.
- A sincere love for children and youth.
- The ability to work with and lead a team.

Responsibilities:
- Assisting the Registrar in providing administrative support.
- Includes registration and assisting with various administrative tasks as required, as well as helping in the camp store.

The Location: Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island, BC, one hour north of Victoria and 45 minutes south of Nanaimo. Nestled right between Maple Mountain and the Pacific Ocean, it’s the perfect place to take in the glory of God’s creation whether you’re a hiker, swimmer, or beach-lounger!

Contact Us:
Email: staff@qwanoes.ca
Applications: https://qwanoes.campbrainstaff.com