We are seeking Elementary generalists, Jr. High And High School Math And Science Tutors to assist our clients to excel academically! The candidate will provide non-classroom instruction to students on an individual or group basis at a mutually agreed location such as a public library or the student’s home.

Responsibilities:

- Manage and educate students in a non-classroom setting
- Work with students in areas of difficulty in subject areas
- Complete assessments on student's progress
- Develop study skills and exam preparation
- Document and communicate progress reports
- Provide constructive feedback for students
- Be flexible and able to provide a virtual session with minimal notice

Qualifications:

- Bachelor of Education (In progress is acceptable) with previous experience in teaching, specialized education, IPP implementation, or tutoring.
- Ability to build rapport with students
- Sufficient knowledge of elementary reading and math, Jr. and Senior High Math and Science
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Valid Criminal Record Check
- A vehicle is mandatory as tutors will be traveling to student's homes or a mutually agreed upon location. Transit will not work.
Availability:
This is a part time position. Candidates must have availability between the hours of 4pm-8:00pm Mondays to Thursdays, and 9-1pm on Saturdays. Start date is September 11th, 2023.

Thank you to all those who apply. If interested, please contact us via email Michelle.exceptionalabilities@gmail.com with a copy of your resume.

Candidates who meet our criteria will be contacted directly.